

Cruz Barrett was born and raised in Daytona Beach, FL where he was a three-sport student athlete at Mainland High School competing in football, basketball, and track and field. Cruz was 4-year varsity football letter winner and 2-year starter winning the Florida 5A State Title in 2003. Cruz earned 1st Team All Area awards during his Senior year. He chose to attend the University of Nebraska-Lincoln on a full scholarship to play football where he earned First Team All-Big 12 Academic Honors his senior year.

Cruz believes that the youth can make a huge impact in their schools and communities and has been working with them since graduating college in 2010. He has served as a Jr and Sr High School paraprofessional, youth sports coach, college sports scout, and worked with at-risk youth in foster-care. He has experience as a high school varsity assistant in football, basketball, and softball and currently serves as the Head Varsity football coach as well as an Academic Support Specialist at Concordia High School. Cruz has a passion for facilitating success for Student-Athletes and has helped just over one-hundred athletes get recruited in all college sports.

Cruz is married to Corinna (Cory) n e Montgomery and they have two kids Landon (2014) and Aubrey (2016). His Favorite College and Pro teams are the Nebraska Cornhuskers and Minnesota Vikings.
