

Dan Kraft (High School Varsity Head Coach)

Coach Dan Kraft has coached high school baseball for the past 17 years. He coached at Bellevue West and Roncalli where he was a Reserve and JV coach. In 2014, Coach Kraft was supported in establishing the baseball program here at Concordia. Dan has been involved in baseball all his life. He has always had a passion for the game of baseball and played the game up until he was 18. Dan had a chance to play in college baseball, but instead, decided to volunteer as a coach at Bellevue West High School where his coaching career started.

In addition to coaching baseball, Dan is a sixth grade Special Education teacher at Andersen Middle School. He graduated from UNO with a degree in Education. Dan first wanted to be a high school history teacher, but then decided to transition into teaching Special Education. He has been a Special Education teacher at Andersen for ten years.

Dan enjoys working with his students and players. He always looks forward to developing the baseball program and seeing the players be successful. He strives to make the baseball program competitive and support student-athletes in their pursuit of excellence on and off the field. Dan always wants to make a difference in the lives of all those he teaches, and coaches, and for them to be successful in life.
