

Karli Torosian is the head coach for the Concordia High School Dance Team. She is also co-owner and teacher at Backstage Dance Studio.

Karli began dance and competitive gymnastics as a little girl. Her dance training continued through high school and college. While earning a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Arts at Creighton University, she was a Jays cheerleader and performed in many musicals and dance showcases.

Karli has been teaching dance to children and adults for over 25 years. She was the Concordia Cheer coach from 2009-2016 and the Dance Team coach from 2017-present.

Karli is married to Greg Torosian and they have 4 children. All of their children have attended Concordia for grades K-12. Karli enjoys attending sporting events and taking vacations with her family. Her favorite bible verse, which is also her confirmation verse, is Romans 8:38-39. Karli likes to cheer on the Creighton Blue Jays, especially her daughter who was on the Creighton dance team and her son who is on the Creighton baseball team!
