

Nathan Hancock (Head Varsity Wrestling Coach-Boys Team)

Nathan Hancock was born and raised in a suburb of Chicago where he got involved in the sport of wrestling at the age of 4. He competed in wrestling into his early 20's before getting involved in coaching wrestling. Overall he has almost 40 years involved in the sport of wrestling. Before coming to Concordia to coach the wrestling team he was a coach with Millard South as an assistant coach with the high school team and the head coach of their wrestling club. He has had the opportunity to coach numerous national teams for both AAU and USA wrestling. He has also coached numerous state qualifiers and state placiers. Coach Hancock is a USA Wrestling Bronze certified coach and a member of the National Wrestling Coaches Association.

Besides coaching the Concordia high school varsity wrestling team he also coaches the Concordia youth wrestling team. Coach Hancock also coaches the junior high football team; jv baseball team; and the mock trial team. He also teaches at Concordia high school in the Social Studies department including Intro to Law, Intro to Criminal Justice, and Psychology. He worked in law enforcement for most of his adult life until God called him to teaching.

Nathan is married to his wonderful wife Christie and they have 3 amazing kids (Hannah, Trevor, and Lucy). They enjoy attending all of their kids' sports and activities. Their family enjoys everything to do with the outdoors including visiting numerous national parks seeing God's creation at its finest. Their family are big fans of the Chicago Cubs, Chicago Bears, Chicago Bulls, Chicago Blackhawks, and all University of Illinois teams.

